

Dorchester Tennis & Squash Club Annual Tennis Championships 2021

The 2021 DTSC Annual Tennis Championships were held between 20th August and the 16th October. We had a great turnout, especially holding the Championships so soon after the completion of the 2020 Championships in June this year, due to delays caused by Covid-19 lockdowns in 2020/21. The total number of entrants was 53, with 19 women and 34 men taking part. Our main tournament sponsor was Pengillys and Tesco, Dorchester provided free water and squash. Finals day on Saturday 16th October was a great success, with lovely sunny, autumnal weather and light winds and we were treated to a delicious lunch organised by Ros Clark and ably assisted on the day by Jill Maple and Ann Williams with delicious cakes baked by various members. The prizes were presented by Tim Guppy, representing Pengillys and Chantelle Bacon, the Community Champion from Tesco, Dorchester.

In the Men's Singles, there was a repeat of last year's final. Kevin Willemse defended his title and beat Ed Keegan 6-0, 6-0. There were some great rallies and the match was, like last year, a lot closer than the score suggests, but Kevin was too steady and was in control of the match throughout. Kevin has now won the title for the last 3 years in a row and a total of 4 times.

Sarah Skidmore continued her amazing run of victories and won the Ladies' Singles again for the 5th year in a row and the 21st time overall. She first won the title in 1992 and continues to beat all her challengers. Losing finalist was Katharine Butler and despite her determined efforts and attacking play, she couldn't match Sarah tactically, who kept pinning her in the backhand corner of the court and she lost 6-0 6-3.

In the Men's Doubles, last year's runners-up Ed Keegan, partnering 16-year old Ethan Robinson had already managed to beat last year's champion Kevin Willemse, playing with a new partner, veteran Paul Scott in the semi-final and they went one better than last year in an exciting final as they outplayed Charlie Barnett and Hal Cazalet to become Men's Doubles Champions for the first time.

The Ladies' Doubles final is a repeat of last year's final. With defending champions Sally Dinham-Scott and Yvonne Henderson again taking on Sarah Skidmore and Immi Reid. This match will be scheduled soon. Watch this space...

In the Mixed Doubles, Sarah Skidmore and Ethan Robinson defended their title in one of the most compelling matches of Finals Day as they beat the new partnership of Millie Sidaway and Ellery Ford. Millie Sidaway and Ellery Ford went 3-0 up in the second set with 2 breaks of serve, and it looked like the match was heading for a deciding set, but the established pair of Sarah Skidmore and Ethan Robinson dug in and dragged their way back into the set, eventually winning in straight sets. The match was very close with some enthralling rallies. Sarah Skidmore has now won the Mixed Doubles 25 times with 10 different partners.

Sarah Skidmore and Ethan Robinson both won 2 titles in the main events and are therefore both in line to share the coveted Rod Skidmore Cup, named in memory of Sarah's husband. This Cup is awarded to the winner of the most events in the main draw and is presented in memory of a much missed club member and club Chair, Rod Skidmore, a Royal Naval pilot who lost his life in a helicopter crash in 2002.

As Sarah still has the Ladies Doubles Final to play, this trophy will be awarded at a later date.

Tournament Trophies & Prizes

In the Plate Men's Singles, Henry Theobald defeated the exhausted Stephen Hockaday, a recently joined member who had just come off court from a tough Men's Doubles Plate match.

In the Ladies' Singles Plate final, Sue Warren defeated new member Rebecca Hambleton in the longest match of Finals Day and the only match to go to a deciding set. Rebecca came out to play in the first set with her normal attacking style and took the first set easily 6-2, but Sue then changed her tactics and played very canny, defensive tennis and kept drawing Rebecca into the net and then accurately lobbing or passing her, throwing Rebecca off her game plan. Sue took the 2nd set 6-3 and in the decisive match tie-break, Sue's consistency and experience pulled her through and she won 10-5.

In the Ladies' Doubles Plate final, Rebecca Hambleton overcame her disappointment from the Plate Singles to win the doubles title with Lynn Ramsell. They had a great match with two up and coming juniors Rebecca Stein and Sophie Perry. Unfortunately the juniors left before the presentation ceremony so there isn't a photo of them receiving their prizes.

In the Mixed Doubles Plate final, Tennis Chair Al Clark and his wife Ros, who was returning from a knee injury beat Sue Ramsbottom and Tim Toogood in straight sets.
